

Clear the Air

Smoke knows no boundaries

Created by the World Health Organization (WHO) in 1987 and celebrated annually since, World No Tobacco Day aims to draw global attention and awareness to tobacco use and its detrimental health effects.

MAY 31

World No Tobacco Day

More information and resources are available online at:

FOH.hhs.gov/SmokeFree

Fedstrive
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
AND HUMAN SERVICES

